Ron Klasko Addresses Immigration Lawyers on “Advising the Wealthy Client”

Philadelphia Pa. October 7, 2008: H. Ronald Klasko, the founding partner of the immigration law firm Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer LLP, recently addressed immigration lawyers in Florida on options for wealthy investors and retirees to get permanent residence status in the US. His presentation was made at the 22nd Annual American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) Central Florida Chapter Immigration Law Seminar.

Mr. Klasko addressed the advantages and disadvantages of choosing between E-2 and L-1 visas and individual and regional EB-5 centers.

For nearly 30 years, Mr. Klasko has practiced exclusively immigration law. He is a former national President and three-term General Counsel of AILA. He is listed in the 2008 edition of the Best Lawyers in America and is named one of the country's top immigration lawyers by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2008. A frequent lecturer and prolific author on immigration law topics, Mr. Klasko is one of only three immigration lawyers ever honored by AILA with the Founders Award—an award given to the individual or group who has had the most important impact on immigration law. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.A. 1971), Mr. Klasko received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D. 1974).

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country's leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
