Ron Klasko Addresses Brooklyn Board of Realtors on EB-5 Visa Program

Philadelphia, Pa. June 8, 2009: H. Ronald Klasko, the founding partner of the immigration law firm Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer LLP, recently spoke to members of the Brooklyn Board of Realtors in New York regarding the U.S. regional center EB-5 visa program which provides the best way for foreign investors to get green cards and live in property they purchase here.

The EB-5 visa program is of great interest to realtors since many international real estate buyers want to retire and live year round in the U.S. The regional center EB-5 program allows them to accomplish these goals.

For nearly 30 years, Mr. Klasko has practiced exclusively immigration law. He is a former national President and three-term General Counsel of AILA. He is listed in the 2008 edition of the Best Lawyers in America and is named one of the country's top immigration lawyers by Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business 2008. A frequent lecturer and prolific author on immigration law topics, Mr. Klasko is one of only three immigration lawyers ever honored by AILA with the Founders Award—an award given to the individual or group who has had the most important impact on immigration law. A graduate of Lehigh University (B.A. 1971), Mr. Klasko received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School (J.D. 1974).

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country's leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
